Sowell - A Conflict of Visions A Conflict Of Visions Thomas

Thomas Sowell is to be congratulated for his clarity of thought as well as his considered compassion. In 'A conflict of visions' he shows just how different the world views are, and how they lead to incompatible policies. As idealism clashes with realism, we have the conflict between Plato's vision and that of Aristotle.

A Conflict of Visions is a book by Thomas Sowell. It was originally published in 1987; a revised edition appeared in 2007. Sowell's opening chapter attempts to answer the question of why the same people tend to be political adversaries in issue after issue, when the issues vary enormously in subject matter and sometimes hardly seem connected to one another. The root of these conflicts, Sowell claims, are the "visions", or the intuitive feelings that people have about human nature; different visi

A Conflict of Visions: Ideological Origins of Political ...

In A Conflict of Visions, Sowell examines an impressive array of economic, political, and legal thinkers from Adam Smith and William Godwin in the 18th century to such contemporaries as John Rawls and Friedrich Hayek. Throughout, he employs his categories of constrained and unconstrained visions as a principle of intelligibility, placing and clarifying the theories that underlie the ongoing debate about the proper policies to advocate and pursue in society and government.

Thomas Sowell - A Conflict of Visions - YouTube

In this book, which the author calls a "culmination of 30 years of work in the history of ideas," Sowell attempts to explain the ideological difference between liberals and conservatives as a disagreement over the moral potential inherent in nature. Those who see that potential as limited prefer to constrain governmental authority, he argues.
