"We can only assume that some sort of mix-up occurred in the processing phase," said St. Peter, the heavenly official in charge of the Book of Life, in which the names of those chosen to ascend to the Gates of Heaven are written. "Unfortunately, when you deal with over 70 million souls a day, these kinds of mistakes happen. What can I say?"

The gameplay is similar to other Rhythm Heaven Games, where the player has to do things to the beat of the music. Games come in multiple sets, with each set containing eight games. The eighth game for each set is a Remix. A Remix game is the other seven games mixed together to a different song with different graphics.
