Happily Ever After builds this foundation by anchoring instruction in classic stories from children ' s literature. Children listen to a well-known story in the first lesson of each unit and return to it again and again as they move through the other lessons in the unit. The story gives them a common framework for new words and concepts.

Lesson 19 Read When reading informational texts, look for the points the author presents to convince you an idea is true. To figure out whether an author's points are supported, look for any reasons and evidence he or she supplies for each point. A reason is an explanation for why the idea might be true.

Lesson 19 Understanding Supporting Evidence

After the students have finished reading the text, put them into small groups. Ask each group to make two or three statements about the text. Give them examples of the kinds of statements they can make (this will depend on their level). After each group has made their statements, pass them round to other groups.
