The Ayrton Senna-Schumacher rivalry was a short-lived competition. It was between two unlikely competitors, a new racer on the grid and a past master. By 1991, Senna had already won three world championships, while Schumacher had just started his career. It was in 1992 that Schumacher would enroll his first race victory.

In 2020 the grid is often prey to the drivers of Mercedes and Max Verstappen and this weekend they again seem to be top candidates for the podium. While many races have the same trophies because of sponsors, F1 has decided to design a unique trophy with a special edge for the Emilia Romagna Grand Prix in tribute to Senna.. You can see that the trophy is a replica of the track layout.
