Leadership and Self-Deception -Self-deception is the most common and most destructive element in many organizations and in our lives. When people fail to treat others as people, and instead regard them as objects, they betray the call to honor the humanity of other people and to treat everyone with respect. People justify this behavior by created a distorted view of reality, or a "box," in which they can blame others. While

~~Leadership And Self deception - SlideShare~~
After reading Leadership and Self-Deception, which is an excellent book, I have come to the conclusion that I have been living my life in the box with self-deception. During conversations with my husband I sometimes felt that I was a large part of the problem. After reading this book I realized that I was the number one problem.
