Under Little League rules, however, it is not. Rule 8.05 includes this section: PENALTY: The ball is dead, and each runner shall advance one base without liability to be put out unless the batter reaches first on a hit, an error, a base on balls, a hit batter or otherwise, and all other runners advance at least one base in which case the play proceeds without reference to the balk.

Little League Rules - U.P. Baseball Softball

The Little League Rulebook has exceptions to the base-stealing rule, but it's clear that the rule was established both for reasons of player safety and because the infield could become a "free for all" if all players were allowed to move off base to lead or steal whenever the manager gave them the signal.
