An acquisition is a corporate action in which one company purchases, or otherwise acquires, most or all of another company ' s assets to gain control of that company.

Restructuring is another corporate action that reorganizes one or more business components, such as employees, to make the company operate more efficiently and cost-effectively. All three of these business actions generally affect employees in some way.

In this chapter, you will gain an understanding of the underlying dynamics of mergers and acquisitions (M&As) in the context of an increasingly interconnected world.

This chapter begins with a discussion of why M&As act as change agents in the context of corporate restructuring.
