The idea of a book taking place in Paris about a treasure hunt sounded amazing, though this book certainly did not live up to my expectations. Release: February, 2015. Synopsis: Nora loves Paris, learning about it through the stories her grandmother Sylvia told her growing up. In fact, they plan to go for her twelve birthday, but only weeks before Sylvia is killed in a car crash.

Anyway, one of the lovely side effects of reading MY SECRET GUIDE TO PARIS by Lisa Schroeder is that it led me to pull out my photo album and relive the trip with my six-year-old, who has now decided that she must go to Paris like the main character in the book. As much as I would love to take her, that's a trip you should be a little older to appreciate.
