I loved him in Nicole Williams Lost & Found, where his irresistible charm and sunny disposition perfectly balanced the snarky and aloof persona of love interest, Rowen Sterling. The follow-up novel, Near & Far, conveys a darker side of Jesse, simmering just beneath the surface of his golden boy fa\u00e7ade and threatening his relationship with Rowen.

Near & Far was such a beautiful journey and one I think needed to be told. I personally know I needed that closure for these two and I needed to have my heart ripped to shreds by them. I will say this, nobody can take my heart, stomp on it, throw it in a hole and then somehow put it back together again like Nicole Williams.

Nicole Williams. SHE WAS MY heart. She was my soul. She was everything that resided in between. ... It was a nightmare I'd become far too acquainted with, and one that woke me up too many times, the sheets tangled around me and sweat dripping down my body. The images always took too many moments to clear from my head.
