Darkness and destruction lie ahead unless the Galkians rescue their savior, who, according to ancient myths, is trapped somewhere behind seven locked gates. Prince Kerish-lo-Taan, the Emperor's favorite son, makes a big decision: to leave the safety of Galkis and take his half-brother Forollkin on a dangerous quest for the legendary savior. First, Kerish and Forollkin must find the Seven Sorcerers who guard the keys to the gates.

It takes place in the Galkian Empire, an ancient civilization, full of beauty and haunting memories. Prince Kerish-lo-taan is called godborn because he is descended from Zeldin, the gentle god who preached peace, love and moderation, and a mortal woman. This god reminded me of Buddha or even Jesus Christ. However, Prince Kerish is only too human.
