Wrights and Wrongs opens with a cracking story about Wright, then 16, fed up and miserable because his father would not allow him to train as a dancer, running away from his Hampshire boarding school with friend Peggy Barnsley, whose father just happened to be one of the school governors. The tale is funny, but it also reveals immediately someone determined, and who knows his own mind, something that comes through again and again.

Right and wrong are the following or breaking of rules that are sanctioned by their utilitarian value. A proposed "middle ground" between these two types is Two-level utilitarianism , where rules are applied in ordinary circumstances, but with an allowance to choose actions outside of such rules when unusual
