The score for X-Men: THE LAST STAND was composed b JOhn Powell, marking the third different composer for the x-men franchise. I thought that if Powell's score was comparable to Kamen's rather lackluster X-Men score it would be decent. I didn't think that Powell would give Ottman's X2 score a run for it's money. He does.

Composer John Ottman helmed the baton for the X-Men franchise after the death of original maestro Michael Kamen and John Powell (United 93, Mr. & Mrs. Smith) took the reigns for the third installment, so it comes as no surprise that the myriad of themes introduced can be a bit much. Ottman gave the series some heft on X-Men 2 with his use of choirs and more than a little Mozart, a style adopted by Powell for X-Men: The Last Stand.
